Excerpt from Memorial of John Ross, and Others: Delegates From the Cherokee Indians, Complaining of Injuries Done Them, and Praying for Redress; May 20, 1834 At our interview, the President as well as yourself, took occasion to express deep solicitude on the part Of the Government to adjust the difficulties which so much disturb the peace and tranquillity Of our nation. Here, you will please to allow us to repeat the expression of a corresponding desire on the part of our nation; and, at the same time, to take the liberty of suggesting for the consideration Of the President, whether it would not be practicable for the Government to satisfy the claims Of Georgia through the individuals of the State who may have drawn lots of lands in our territory in the lotteries of that State, by granting them other lands of the United States lying Within the limits Of the Territories and States Of the Union, or in some other way. We would respectfully ask you further to state fully the views and disposition of the President, how far, and in what...
