

London in Paint: A Book of Postcards (Hardback)

By Tate Publishing, Lee Cheshire

TATE PUBLISHING, United Kingdom, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The hustle and bustle of London, its changing landscape and infinite sights have provided a rich subject for the many artists who have visited and inhabited the city. From the earliest known paintings, artists have sought to encapsulate their impressions of this lively metropolis. Their representations are fascinatingly diverse, revealing visions of London that let us see the city as it has been experienced and reflected by a variety of artists through the centuries. From recognisable views of the River Thames, St Paul s and Tower Bridge, to idyllic scenes of London s residential squares and streets, or paintings capturing the architectural feats and engineering marvels of their day, artists have documented a developing London - a London which found wealth and confidence and was to emerge as the first truly modern city. Drawing from Tate s superb collection and beyond, this stunning book presents 100 paintings from the 17th century to the present. Whether iconic or unusual, topographical or verging on the abstract, each work offers a special perspective.Contextualised by an insight into the chosen view or location, the artist, and their particular technique, the...
