

Patrick N. Lynch, 1817-1882: Third Catholic Bishop of Charleston

By David C. R. Heisser, Stephen J. White

University of South Carolina Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Patrick N. Lynch, 1817-1882: Third Catholic Bishop of Charleston, David C. R. Heisser, Stephen J. White, Patrick Neison Lynch, born in a small town in Ireland, became the third Roman Catholic bishop of the Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina. Lynch is remembered today mostly for his support of the Confederacy, his unofficial diplomatic mission to the Vatican on behalf of the Confederate cause, and for his ownership and management of slaves owned by the Catholic diocese. In the first biography of Lynch, David C. R. Heisser and Stephen J. White, Sr. investigate those controversial issues in Lynch's life, but they also illuminate his intellectual character and his labors as bishop of Charleston in the critical era of the state and nation's religious history. For, during the nineteenth century, Catholics both assimilated into South Carolina's predominantly Protestant society and preserved their own faith and practices. A native of Ireland, Lynch immigrated with his family to the town of Cheraw when he was a boy. At the age of twelve, he became a protege of John England, the founding bishop of the diocese of Charleston. After studying at the seminary England...
