Entering into praise and worship is one of the most informative books of our time. To those who seek to know more about how, why, and when to worship our God, this book is your answer. If music is one of the most important tools to use in time of worship, then what is music Music is a spirit directly connected to the Spirit of God. Worship is a 24/7 activity between the creator and the created. One of the ways humans communicate to our maker is called worship. Everyday of our life is a form of worship, the spirit called music can never be put to sleep within us, this spirit sings around the clock, it is one of the components that keeps the human spirit, soul, and body going stronger everyday. You will find out in this book that Jesus Christ as the Lamb of God and the Lion of the tribe of Judah, has different meanings and assignments. These two names represent Praise and Worship. Your spiritual eyes will be opened to the greatest revelation of our time as the Holy Spirit ministers to your heart the new found truths in the holy scriptures. This item ships from La Vergne, TN.
