

Loves Bullet: An Urban Novel

By -

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 376 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. A Bullet with No Name. . . Melrose Manning was always considered a good girl, even with her father being one of the most infamous criminals around. Mel was taken from her home at a young age, forced to grow up in group homes, and then one day someone saved her. Neno was one of her fathers most loyal soldiers, and he was only a few years older than Mel herself. She grew up to be a girl who didnt let life get her down. That is until one fateful day when Mel decides to stop playing it so safe and limiting herself on lifes experiences. As they say, peer pressure can be a motha, and one day of fun nearly costs her life, setting a chain of events that will change the course of her life. Campbell Jai Wright is the complete opposite of her best friend. CJ is what they called a bad bitch. At the tender age of 17 she had grown men wishing they were a button on her designer jeans. Being raised by the citys Kingpin made her well known and a target....
