HTML BOOK DESCRIPTION After teaching piano lessons for many years, pianist Kathy Yiu shares her secrets to success in this easy-to-follow teaching guide. A question-and-answer format reveals the keys to proper instruction and the tricks to getting results with students. Kathy didnt always have all the answers about teaching piano lessons and motivating kids. After graduating from the University of Western Ontario, she started teaching piano lessons, but she struggled to inspire her students to practice outside of class. She also faced criticism from parents. Some students quit. As she gained more experience, she figured out the best piano-teaching techniques and learned how to motivate students to excel. Her students started winning competitions and acing exams. The complaints dwindled. Her students finally stuck with her. If youre a piano or music teacher who can relate, this book is for you. It will boost your confidence and answer all your piano-teaching questionseven ones you didnt know you had. You will gain many new teaching ideas and tools, along with music recommendations. Best of all, your students and their parents will thank you. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
