Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Leaven a Black and White Story Eulalie lay in a comfortable hollow, just big enough to fit his tall and shapely form, supporting his chin in both hands and watching the long wide valley below him. He had been there since noon, and now the sun had nearly touched the blue hills many miles away, where he had seen it disappear every night that his memory could compass, perhaps fifteen years, when it had fallen into the great krantz where the hole was through which it rolled back under the rocks and the river to come up again behind the grey mountains in the morning.
