Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Sixteen-year-old Elise Amador has all the outward appearances of a typical teenage girl growing up in Southern California, from her ever-present iPod and cell phone, to her rock n roll T-shirt and Vans sneakers. Life at home on San Pedro s Paseo Del Mar appears equally normal, as Ely struggles to balance her growing spirit of independence with the strict standards imposed by her parents, all the while relying on her family as the unfaltering center of her world. But there are troubling questions, too. Where has her mother been going when she mysteriously disappears without any explanation? Where has her brother, Ace, gone and why isn t there more of an effort being made to find him? And, who is the gorgeous, shadowy figure she discovers in the middle of the night standing on the rocky shores of the Pacific, with the piercing stare that brings chills to her spine? Even more troubling, why hasn t she caught a tan after spending two prime beach days lying out in the sun? Lucila Rubalcava s breathtaking new novel of teenage vampires, Dormant, weaves a skillfully spun web composed of the hidden secrets and unimaginable truths lurking behind the everyday reality of Ely s life, while exploring the emotions and feelings that truly define her. At the center of the story is Ely s burgeoning relationship with the devastatingly attractive, onyx-eyed Jordi Enric Pax, an enigmatic suitor who has come to San Pedro from the Spanish provinces of Catalunya and yet seems to know every detail of Ely s life, not to mention her every thought. To Ely s surprise and delight, when her grandmother escorts her on a summer trip...
