

Men and Masculinity (Paperback)

By Caroline Sweetman

Oxfam Publishing, United Kingdom, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Over the last decade, researchers from many different disciplines have taken an increasing interest in studying men's gender identity and role. This collection of articles by development practitioners and theorists explores new ground by considering the implications of male gender identities for the rights of both men and women, and for gender-equitable development. The authors examine the concept of masculinity, drawing on experiences from Trinidad, South Africa, and around the world.
