Going back to the port to reach the rest of his crew seems simple, but Gillean Conroy, merchant sailor on the fastest ship of the South Seas, has two major problems: an amnesia, deep as a bottomless pit, and the aftermath of a huge hangover. Gillean will cross the labyrinthine neighborhoods of the old city, trying to get away from bizarre characters and surreal or dangerous situations. He is going to make a terrible discovery: he is the only one who can resolve the mystery of the dragon symbol. He ll have to do it fast because time s running out and he needs to piece together his memory before dawn. It had been his first chance for shore leave since the ship s arrival and the powerful liquors of this frontier town had knocked him down before the night was over. The long months at sea, without being able to touch a drop of alcohol, hadn t helped him with this gigantic hangover and the real trouble was he couldn t remember how he had found himself under that table...
