.National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, held on January 29, 1920, in Chicago: To give a concrete picture of the intrinsic wealth of the world, statisticians sometimes resort to the device of tabulating the debts that are carried by the various nations. The world war, by demonstrating the staggering total of debt which the fighting nations could shoulder and still remain economically sound, was a revelation of uncounted resources in world wealth both to the laity and to many business men who had considered themselves well informed. In the field of highway transport, there has been a colossal number of failures, and reports of new transportation companies that have failed are received almost daily. If these debts, the money losses represented by these failures--failures due in a large part to the absence of transport surveys--were the sole reason for the development of such surveys, their value...
