The Life of God as Me: A Magically Miraculous Account of Spiritual Expansion Demonstrating How to Attain the Same in Your Life.

By King Gabriel Quincy Collymore

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 148 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. In the little Caribbean island of Trinidad and Tobago, a foreign energy enters into a child and brings forth new perspectives, teachings and experiences that are without a doubt Other Worldly in nature. Through the life experience of this being, the author brings forth the unmistakable view of this being's accepted perspective that . . . in his words, it is not my life, but The Life of God as me. Against this backdrop, King Gabriel discovers the depths of Spiritual territory which is somewhat taboo and fearful to many, and lives to tell an amazing story of discovery, enlightenment, further exploration and continual expansion, that leaves readers clear about, yet intrigued by, the proposed nature of reality. What if your whole world was not all it seemed to be? What if a single refocusing of a thought changed everything? What if there was a way to tap into the Universal will that would allow total happiness and harmony? The novel clearly demonstrates: Practical techniques that will allow only actions, thoughts and words that serve your purpose to be...
