The New Testament launches with an eyewitness account of the events of Jesus life from Matthew, a former despised tax collector who experienced a radical conversion and became one of Jesus own disciples. Matthew s unique view interweaves his strong Jewish knowledge of the expected Messiah with his personal recollections of the flesh-and-blood Savior. In the process, he reveals the qualifications that prove Jesus was the promised Messiah: His miraculous birth, His response to the test of His kingliness, His inauguration, His miracles, His teachings, and His public ministry.
