McClelland & Stewart, Toronto, 2008. Hard Cover in Dust Jacket. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. Map (illustrator). 2008 First Printing. 2008 Hardcover book in dust Jacket . BRAND NEW from 2008 publisher . Never opened, Never read , Never marked . Book size : 6" wide x 9" tall ; 328 pages + 1 map, in illustrated jacket . Marie-Anne Lagimodiere was possibly the most extraordinary Canadian woman of the nineteenth century . Grandmother to the great Canadian reformer Louis Riel, her courage and passion would profoundly influence him . Now, Governor General's Award-winning author Maggie Siggins brings Marie-Anne out of the shadows in this compellingly readable biography . Beautiful and spirited, Marie-Anne rejected suitor after suitor until she was twenty-six years old - a rebellion that was unheard of in 1800 Quebec habitant society . Then, shortly after her marriage to the handsome coureur de bois Jean-Baptiste Lagimodiere, Marie-Anne insisted on accompanying him back to the uncharted wilderness of western Canada . The year was 1807, and no white woman had tackled the fierce wilderness of Canada's fur-trading country . Marie-Anne travelled almost 3000 kilometres by canoe brigade, facing tumultuous rapids, portages, and deadly storms on the way...
