When Jared Henry bumps into Darcy Blake as they are rushing to their next class, the high school basketball phenom and proverbial only child begin a saga marked by adolescent love, wrongful accusations, Jareds fall into his own purgatory, and his determination to become worthy of her once again. Jared grew up on a small farm located in Southwest Virginia. He was a very good student and a better athlete, leading his basketball team to championships and drawing the attention of major college recruiters, but he never felt worthy of, or comfortable with the attention. A psychologist would have a technical explanation, but inwardly he was damaged, first by exposure to his dysfunctional family and later by the devastation he suffered when he was framed on a drug charge and lost his beloved girlfriend Darcy. He didnt just lose her, she went on to marry the coach he won a state championship playing for. His academic achievement along with his jump shot offered him opportunities to succeed and live the good life but it was Darcy who gave...
