Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After being dumped because her bottom looks like an unpeeled orange, discovering she s heavy enough to appear on The Biggest Loser and mistaken for a pregnant woman, Olivia Merrifield is understandably depressed. So depressed, that the only way she can console herself is with a bag of peppermint slices. Since finishing her degree, the road has become rocky for Olivia. Her longing for a baby has led to an unhealthy relationship with cake. Her inability to choose a boyfriend who s not married, weird or a player has given her self-esteem a swift kick to the kerb. Moving back to her hometown of Merrifield hasn t helped either. Her friends are playing happy families and her mother is on her case - when she s not joining a Kama Sutra yoga class or taking a younger lover, that is. Deciding it s time to make over her life, Olivia embarks on a diet regime. She meets the gorgeous Cole Anderson, a former property renovator who s recently moved to town and is causing quite a stir every time he bends over. But between grieving the death of his daughter, setting up a business and avoiding the bevy of reporters who want to document his every move, Cole hasn t had a lot of time to get life back on an even keel. He s merely existing until Olivia comes along. Cole likes Olivia and Olivia definitely likes Cole. He s hot, sensible and a natural with babies. If only he didn t own that cupcake shop across the road.
