

The Influence of Man (Paperback)

By Matthew a Gallagher

Matthew A. Gallagher, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Influence of Man is a succinct analysis on the influence mankind has had on the world and how paradigm shifts -- in individual thought and national priority -- are essential to sustain a positive influence. Written as a subjective non-fiction, The Influence of Man explores a perceptive approach to how people view themselves and their position in a greater global society. This book ranges from chapter topics in global and national statistics of concern, thought provoking parables designed to challenge the way readers see and act within the world, examinations of divisive and dogmatic beliefs that are responsible for subjecting entire groups of people to oppression, the dire need to refocus the intent of education, to the scientific principles of climate change, and introduces a new method to mathematically evaluate the fundamental components of climate change while reviewing concerning rates and functions related to foundational climatologic destruction. This book culminates in its final chapters which examine the generational succession of human progress and a simple, objective view -- with scientific undertones -- of the purpose of life. This book is sure...
