Shipherd, Secretary, to O. C. Wheeler, General Agent of the Pacific Department For about three years, if we have good success, they will need our aid; then we may return to our ordinary affairs with the reward of a good conscience and the perpetual revenue of the prayers and benedictions of a nation lifted and saved, at a cost not greater than the expense of the army of the Union for a Single week. The General Treasury is entirely dependent upon remittances from your field, and from Europe, for its resources at present, it being a part of the compact considered prudent in the confederation, that the associations heretofore independent, and now becoming branches, should, for a while at least, collect and disburse their funds essentially as heretofore. The magnificent record of loyal California, shining like the golden stream with which she has so generously replenished the treasuries of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, will form a fitting introduction to the not less generous response with which we are sure she will gladden the poor and needy, who, though least guilty, have nevertheless borne the burden of this crushing war. Be good enough, upon receipt of this dispatch, to inform me, by telegraph, whether these particulars are satisfactory. My office is located at 444 Fourteenth street, as indicated at the head of this letter; my residence is at 221 Vt. Avenue. Telegrams to either address will reach me.
