Kingwatch Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Many Christians believe that we are getting close to the second coming of Jesus and that that the end of the world is near. They are right to think that we are getting close to a change of season, but because they do not understand the times and seasons, they are looking for the wrong events. The problem is that popular teaching about the last days, a seven-year tribulation, a rapture and millennium has led to confusion about times and season. The timetables produced by the end-time teachers have been wrong again and again. This book takes a different approach. It begins with the ministry of Jesus and the sending of the Holy Spirit and ends with the glory of the Kingdom of God. The key seasons and the epochal events that mark the change from each season to the next are clearly described. The key themes covered in the book are: God is not in a hurry, but will take as long as he needs to establish the glory of his Kingdom. We are not as close to the end of the world as many Christians believe Jesus death, resurrection and ascension completed his work on earth. He has accomplished everything necessary for the establishment of his kingdom. Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to establish his Kingdom. The Holy Spirit is the Kingdom Builder. During the Times of the Gentiles, the Holy Spirit has been constrained. The Times of the Gentiles are coming to an end and a new season is close. The transition to the next season will be a Time of Distress as human political power rises to a crescendo. The next big event is the Fullness of Israel....
