SUPERIOR S LETTER. To the Editor of The Citizen. St. Joseph s, near SmmetUburg, December 1st, 1854. Sir, --As numerous misrepresentations have appeared in the public prints in relation to Miss Josephine Bunkley s connection with and departure from our institution, I have, from a sense of duty, though with very great reluctance, concluded to communicate to you for publication the following statement of facts, exhibiting the exact truth of the matter. About two years ago, Miss Bunkley, of her own accord, came here and made a spiritual retreat, that is, spent some days in meditation and prayer. She then expressed an ardent desire to become a Sister of Charity--a member of our society. As she was yet young, and a convert to the Catholic faith, she was required to take time for mature consideration, and was not received....
