Memphis Monroe was the most sought after bachelor in all of New York. His life was absolutely glamorous. He had it all; the big bank accounts, foreign cars and lots of women. He was the big fish in a sea of kingpins and all the women loved him. The only problem was Memphis had a loving wife who would do anything for her husband. On the happiest day of Memphis s life, his world comes crashing down when his infidelities become widely publicized, not that he could care. Memphis was more than content with knowing that he could have his cake and eat it too. That was until his wife, Starr, dropped the ball. Starr had been with Memphis for twelve years and had dealt with all that Memphis put her through. But women can only bear so much before they reach their boiling point, and that was exactly where Starr was. Taking her freedom and walking away, Starr was all too eager to reclaim her life. When a brunch date at her mother-in-law s house goes terribly wrong, Starr finds herself in the comfort of another man: Tristen Harris. Tristen Harris was undoubtedly the knight in shining armor Starr deserved. He treated her like a queen and nothing less. But everything that glitters isn t gold. Tristen may seem like the perfect guy but underneath the surface, he was everything but a knight in shining armor. Armed with a badge and a deathly secret, Tristen makes his moves on Starr s damaged heart hoping to erase all the sad memories Memphis left behind. Until a family dinner changed the game and left Memphis missing the one thing he knew he...
