

All or Nothing: A Choice Between Life and Death (Paperback)

By Mrs Margarita S Slater

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The hard knock life is something that this author knows all too well. Coming from a small city, just outside of Detroit MI., she has seen it all. At age 15, drug abuse, crack dealers, gun violence, prostitution and teen pregnancy was the norm in this community, and living life outside this box was merely a pipe dream. Unlike many, Margarita was blessed with a chance to relocate and begin her life free from the trenches that once held her captive. But you know what they say you can take the girl out the hood, but you can't take the hood out the girl. After years and years of discontentment, Margarita is abruptly in for a rude awakening. In this compelling memoir she bares all, using her trials and tribulations as an testimony and a beacon of light that everyone can relate too in some way.
