Tammy Robbins is a beautiful and successful marketing executive at one of the top firms in Atlanta, GA. She just loves all high end name brands items. From Gucci, Prada, Hermes, to her favorite pair of red bottoms, she has them all and more. The problem with this is that she really can not afford them. Yes, she makes a six figure income but she spends more than she makes. From her luxury car to her high-rise condo in Buckhead, her money is stretched each month. Her problem is that she believes image is everything and she will do what it takes to keep it up. Even if it means spending less time with her family and putting her love life on hold. Will her consumption of high end goods cost her everything in the end Thirty-six year old Carlton Harris is a successful entrepreneur that turned his small construction company into a multi-million dollar business. He is looking for a woman to share his life and wealth with, but has to be careful that she will love him more than his money. His last relationship was a disaster and changed him as a man. Therefore he hides his wealth when he meets any new woman. When he meets Tammy will he change his ways to gain her love and trust Kimberly is married to Russell Nicks who plays for the local basketball team. From the outside looking in she is living the life most women envy and dream about. But over the years she has grown restless in her marriage. She is now hiding a secret that could destroy it all. Will her marriage be able to survive if...
