

The Dialogue of a Broken Heart (Paperback)

By Natasha Green

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book you will discover the adolescence stages of dating for the first time, how to counteract problems that arise in a relationship, and survival skills when the relationship does not last. I introduce Nicole Coleman whom is the main character. She is a vibrant, beautiful young woman, who gets into her first major relationship. Nicole jumps into every major decision without a second thought then she suffers the consequences of her actions. Nicole s behavior evolves into a pattern of depression, lack of self-confidence, and lack of social interaction. She is easily influence by the supporting character Tick Jones whom is an entrepreneur, opportunist, and a very cunning man. Nicole transitions from jumping madly in love with Tick, to being unstable when broken by him, and finally she gains the confidence and wisdom to move forward, making better plans for her life rather than just living in the moment. My target audience is young women in their late teens to early twenties. My goal is for the audience to experience Nicole s hardships and if face with similar...
