

Eccentric Britain: A Celebration of Wonderfully Odd Events, Extraordinary Buildings, Curious Characters and Charmingly Quirky Places

By Des Hannigan

New Holland, London, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Chris Coe (photography) (illustrator). 1st Printing. "Eccentric Britain" offers a delightful journey from Land's End to John o' Groats, through a succession of over 140 gloriously useless follies, stately homes full of weird and wonderful features and odd artefacts, hills and headlands with magical powers, and buildings that have gone engagingly awry. Scattered among this banquet of the bizarre are colourful events that honour ancient ceremonies or promote wildly illogical sports and pastimes. Packed with stunning, specially-commissioned photographs and organised by area, complete with locator maps, "Eccentric Britain" explores every quirky corner of the nation, from the Lake District lighthouse that is miles from the sea to Scotland's pineapple-shaped house. Size: 4to - over 9¾" - 12" tall.
