Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Have you or your loved ones ever been the victim of a violent crime? Chances are very high that the perpetrators were already through the corrections system. Here in America, the recidivism rate is as high as 77 . If you look at the corrections system in Europe, their recidivism rate is at 15 . That s proof that it can be done. Why allow such a broken concept to continue? What our prisons do excel at is producing graduates who are more intensely violent and better skilled at committing more crimes. Rehabilitation is practically non-existent. This book takes a look into the ongoing problems of our corrections system that nobody seems to want to fix. We all loathe the horrible crime statistics in our country. We despise the very thought of raising children in such a violent society. We know that the recidivism rates of prisons are incredibly high, and that we send these men and women back into our cities more violent and more predatory in their crimes. Some successfully reintegrate into society and vow to never return to the justice system, but not enough. Why do we have an institutional structure in place that clearly does the exact opposite of what it has been put there to do? If I were to come running over to you and hand you an all expense paid vacation to any destination of your choice, would you accept the airline ticket? Most likely. What if you found out that the airline the ticket was purchased from only had a success rate of 23 , would you accept the ticket then? Most likely not! For many such industries, such an abysmal success ratio...
