MILES FROM HOME: A TRUE STORY OF THE CHOICES THAT DEFINE US (PAPERBACK)

Wasteland Press, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . What would you do for your best friend? When Sean called, asking me to help him drive his parents from Wisconsin to Washington, I found out. Sean's mother had Alzheimer's disease and his father was dying from lung cancer. We were taking them to their final home, an assisted living facility near Sean. And while his dad said he didn't want it to be an ambulance ride, it was clear this wasn't any vacation. Sean and I had thirty years of history. He was my best friend, my first love, and, until very recently, the man I was living with. He was the man who wrote the words I'd carry in my heart my entire adult life, and the man who broke my heart. Miles from Home is the true story of our cross-country trip, an end-of-life journey for one person and new beginnings for the rest of us. It is a story about life, death, friendship, and the choices we make. It is about the messiness of life, and, ultimately, the power of love.
