Veleda Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In this compelling exploration of language, archaeology, and early medieval literature, Max Dashu illuminates hidden cultural heritages. This was the foundational witch-legend that demonologists seized upon in later centuries. But witch persecution was already underway, as a chapter on the sexual politics of early medieval witch burnings documents. A thousand years ago, an Old English scribe condemned people who bring their offerings to earth-fast stone and also to trees and to wellsprings, swa wiccan taecad--as the witches teach. This indicates that people still regarded witches as spiritual teachers, and that they performed ceremonies...
