I woke this morning expecting to marry the man I loved and I ended the day married to somebody else. Jilted by her fiance on their wedding day, actress Myf Roberts runs from the situation and takes an unscheduled trip to Vegas with rock band, Blue Phoenix. The night wasn't supposed to end with her married to Hollywood bad boy, Tate Daniels. Why did it have to be Tate Daniels? The man Myf knew years ago hasn't changed. He's still the charming bad boy who leaves broken hearts in his wake. And Myf still denies she wanted him back then, or that he has an effect on her she's never shaken. Tate is no stranger to scandal and has been warned to keep his nose clean if he wants to keep his lucrative role in the newest network drama. Now he's discovered his fake Vegas wedding isn't so fake after all, and he has one huge problem to fix. But Myf is the girl who filled Tate's world six years ago. The one who got away. And this time she doesn't get to call the shots. When she's cast as lead actress opposite her unwanted husband in his new show, Myf can't refuse the career opportunity she's waited for. But can Myf keep the sizzling chemistry between her and Tate onscreen? Or will she surrender and give her heart to the man she swore would never win?.
