Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Catherine Reid s decision to join a convent has left her friends puzzled. What is driving her to take such drastic action? Is it the unwanted attention of a member of the local bird watching group? Is it the new wind sweeping through her church following the departure of Father O Connell and the arrival of his replacement, Father Dominic? The answer will never be known as, before they can discover the real reason behind her decision, Pamela and Eileen, her best friends, find her dead when they visit her house. Is it natural causes, and, if not, who might have wanted her dead? As Catherine s cousin Jeremy begins to deal with her estate, he uncovers more mystery about events in the last few days of her life, and after her death. Where there s a Will - there s a way is a work of fiction inspired by strange events in South West London in the nineties.
