

What Jennifer Saw (Paperback)

By MR Hal Schweig

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The murder of a small town s most admired businessman and philanthropist - a man without an enemy in the world - in time sets in motion events which reveal the moral decay festering beneath his family s golden surface. Following the murder of her husband, his widow has metamorphosed suspiciously from a mousy hausfrau doting on her family to a newly energized vamp hurrying to a secret rendezvous with a mysterious lover. Her 24-year old son later discovers a letter from her paramour, written shortly before his father s murder, and begins to agonize over the unthinkable. The title character, the ethereal Jennifer, the 15-year-old daughter of the murder victim, witnessed her father s murder, but is suffering Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome and cannot recall who she saw. A brilliant but maverick psychiatrist, wrestling demons of his own, is brought in to treat her and discovers she is also in the grip of Multiple Personality Disorder. He gambles everything on one high-risk roll of the dice to decipher her psyche, which harbors a grotesque melange of angry personas, one...
