Keeping Romance Alive After Children Arrive: How to Thrive in a Loving and Passionate Marriage While Raising a Happy Family (Paperback)

By Toni Erickson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . You cannot sit back and hope to have a happy marriage. You have to create one. --Unknown Having a baby is one of the most beautiful experiences in the world. However, it can create considerable stress and strain on a marriage. A woman s hormones usually go wacko. Baby keeps everyone awake and on edge, and dads have extra demands and pressures which are often minimized. Sexual expression may be non-existent for some time, and communication can decline drastically. Unfortunately, many couples lose their connection, at least for a while. Certainly, there is no more important time for couples to be strongly committed to one another than during these stressful periods of having a baby and rearing a family. Keeping Romance Alive After Children Arrive was written to help partners maintain a strong and loving relationship during pregnancy, after the baby comes, and well into the future. The book provides an abundance of valuable information, skills, tools, and strategies to help couples remain close, intimate, romantic, and sexual during and after this challenging period. Toni Erickson, MSW, LCSW, has been a...
