Give me those flowers there, Dorcas. Reverend sir, For you there s rosemary and rue; these keep Seeming and savour all the winter long: Grace and remembrance be to you both, And welcome to our shearing! Pol. Shepherdess, A fair one are you, well you fit our ages With flowers of winter. Per. Sir, the year growing ancient, Not yet on summers death, nor on the birth 80 Of trembling winter, the fairest flowers o the season Are our carnations and streakd gillyvors, Which some call natures bastards: of that kind Our rustic garden s barren; and I care not To get slips of them. Pol. Wherefore, gentle maiden, Do you neglect them Per. For I have heard it said There is an art which in their piedness shares With great creating nature. Pol. Say there be...

This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).
