Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Memoirs of a Forty-Niner: John E. Brown Wednesday was a wet day, raining very hard. I remained in my room and wrote letters and otherwise busied myself with mending in preparation for a long journey, it being quite restful. On Thursday, Harris 8: self started out and made our purchases of equipment, but did not finish. To morrow, we must try again. In the afternoon, we went out to the finest portion of the city, and were much disappointed in finding everything in a filthy condition. No care is taken of streets or buildings. Everyone is on a run, and scarcely turns around to observe a fine building. Much fever is exhibited, and interest in the emigrants who purchase fire arms, etc., I was delighted on Friday, when Mason very unexpectedly dropped in to our rooms having arrived the night before at midnight. I had my daguerreotype taken to put in a gold locket to send home to my sister Elizabeth. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
