Excerpt from A Plea for the Poor: A Sermon Delivered in the Independent Tabernacle, in Philadelphia, on Sabbath Evening, the 18th December, 1814, for the Benefit of the Female Hospitable Society Debts contracted among thisgpeople, were released at the end of particular seasons: So that if we take all these items into account, we shall find, that they, contributed tozthe support of religion and the poor a sum amounting to almost half their income. Will any one assert that these laws are now abm lished; and that the introduction of the chris tian system has superseded all the Jewish institutions? Let such persons remember, that so.far is this from being true, especially to the extent now asserted, that the morality of Judaism, is Jnore strongly-enforced in the gospel, *partieulaiiy that part of it which re lates to charity. If our Saviour thath left na no definite instructions for this subject, he hath commanded (what is of much greater entent) thou shalt love thy neighbour. Thy self. Very justly did one observe, Ifunder. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare...
