Lee Post, world-renown cartoonist bears it all in this comic, yet revealing look at all the lies Alaskans have been telling tourists for years and years. Yes, it's true, everyone lives in an igloo, and there's an oil well in everyone's back yard. Most kids have moose as pets. In this fun little puzzle book, Post includes pictures and puzzles! all this for a low, low price, - especially when you compare it to the cost of a loaf of bread in alaska which is like five thousand dollars. If you live in alaska or know someone that does, they probably have seen Post's comic strip, Your Square Life, that ran in The Anchorage Press for many years and entertained millions - OK, a few - alaskans and tourists the world over. He continues to amuse people and small animals with his books, blog, cards and other cheap tourist crap he hopes you'll buy and take back home with you or send to someone outside . In this entertaining tome, you'll find Sudoku puzzles, crossword puzzles, word searches and more. But don't just buy it for the puzzles. Buy it for the hilarious cartoons.
