Do D Jing is one of the most translated and studied texts in the world. Its wisdom has inspired people for millennia and while it has been approached from many different points of view, the author hopes that his cross-disciplinary perspectives of a science and technology professional, Taoist priest and an active Nei Dan practitioner, might offer additional contributions to the subject. Before meeting his teacher, Wudang Tao Master Yun Xiang Tseng, author had practiced Tai Chi for years and read hundreds of books about Eastern philosophy, having some of them, like Y Jing, fell apart in his hands after couple of decades of heavy use. However, the authentic alchemy practice, passed on by the teacher, introduced a quantum leap in his understanding, through amazing auto-alignment of the numerous pieces of the puzzle. The increased energy and relaxed mind made possible to see One Truth that just is (instead of seemingly unrelated information from many authors and many texts), effortless and not-conflicting with personal experiences or any science or religion. The goal of the present work is to provide a faithful translation to Lao Zi's original text (providing supplemental literal meanings of each Chinese character), read from a Zone (a system of reference) of the Taoist practitioner, as well as its relatively advanced interpretation, using the related paradigms of other scientific or esoteric knowledge systems, familiar to the author and hopefully to other researchers. The succinct recipes (fang), which Tao masters use to transmit their wisdom, essentially match Laws of Nature or Design Patterns of the modern science and technology, just in a different expression form. Do D Jing analysis provided in the present work shows one-to-one mapping of Lao...
