

The Song in the Squall (Paperback)

By Nathan Singer

Post Mortem Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Dya is a girl from the deepest end of the ocean. Though likely nearing one hundred years old, she nonetheless looks to be - and for all intents and purposes is - a sixteen-year-old girl. Once, while very young, Dya ventured too close to land and found herself on a pebble beach off the coast of Maine where she came face to face with another young girl named Mary Louise. Though from completely different worlds, Dya and Mary Louise became very close (and secret) friends. Dya returned often over the years to visit Mary Louise, each time spending more and more time on land, and wanting less and less to return to her home in the deep. However, it was starting to become clear to Dya that she could not keep splitting her time between the two worlds, as it was literally, physically, tearing her apart. Soon she would have to decide - will she give up the sea once and for all and live out the remainder of her now shortened life in a world in which she'll never truly belong...
