Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Sword of America: A Masque of the War The figure of Vision appears before the audience as the music plays the opening passages of Edward Grieg s Ase s Death. Vision: Ye who walk confused through stormy days, Who question dazed where holds the pole-star fixed Its place mid all the surging sky, - to you I come, - I, Vision, gleaming flash of light From out the heavens revealing clear the truth Of these confounded and confounding times. Your streets, your houses, gardens seem the same; The sun still shines; the rain falls as before; The hours and days and weeks pass sweetly on; The seasons come and go. - What is this cry That rends the air, these shrieks that ring Forever in your ears, like tortured children? What this stillness as of unthought death That follows, - follows everything? In this The same world? Or in nightmare do we stand Upon the brink of hell with Dante and With Milton, far below us livid see The horrors of the damned and...
