

Admiral Jim: Two Short Stories (Paperback)

By Stuart Raymond Brown

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A pair of short stories, written by Dad, about a young lad called Admiral Jim, who loves nothing more than to pootle around in his little boat on the Norfolk Broads, where he lives with his parents. He finds himself on two adventures in this book, both with his new friends, the Skylarks. First he and his friends have to work together to capture his Uncle Bob, who goes to extraordinary lengths to avoid being caught. A most exciting little story with several twists and turns. Then comes the story of the Old Houseboat. A simple camping trip turns into quite an excitement! These are a pair of enjoyable little stories written by my father in 2001 for us when we were Children. He passed away in 2014, so we are going about publishing them, as so many people have said to do so over the years! We hope that many more people can now enjoy them. He has also written a few more stories, which we are slowly going about preparing for publishing.
