Paperback. Book Condition: New. Allison Funneman (illustrator). Paperback. 102 pages. This book is the culmination of a journey. It is a journey across the world, through our neighborhoods, inside our souls. It is the result of a lot of work by the authors, all of whom are high school students in a small Midwestern town. The journeys began, like all journeys, with an opportunity. I was given the opportunity to experience Japan through the Japan Fulbright Memorial Fund. With the help of the Japanese government, many American teachers were given the opportunity to experience Japan. Experience Japan I did. I was given access to speak with government officials, shopkeepers, teachers, families, and children: I experienced Japan through open eyes and learned. I cannot thank the Japanese Government enough for this opportunity. This book, however, is not about my journey across the world. It is about the youth and their vision of the world. The high school students within these pages were able to experience Japan through my tales. But after everything was said, after the notes were taken, after the tests were graded, and after the lesson plans were filed away, the students explored their world and looked at their surroundings with expanded eyes. In these pages, the views of the youth are described in the Japanese poetic art of the Haiku: Brief, detailed and exact. In this confined space of structure, the students have found new ways to express their world. Through their eyes, the physical world is portrayed as in Brock Samschafer's description of cracked and dry ground. The emotional world is seen in the intimacy of Adam Meyers Friendship. This book is their journey. This journey took me across the oceans, but the ultimate success of the journey is really within the students. The success of all of our journeys, whether across the world, through a neighborhood, or into our own soul, may end with Jacob Habings realization that each...
