Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Sigma Phi Epsilon Journal, Vol. 8: December 25, 1910 So far as I know I am the first and only 2 (i) E to take a hand in the extension of a work, in foreign lands, which has as its motive force and ultimate purpose the same ideals that we hold before us in our fraternity work. The privilege of being in a position to do something for the uplift and advancement of the people of this great land of China more than counterbalances any sacrifice I may have made to come here. In calling other 2 (i) E s, you who are sincerely desirous of finding out where you can best serve your fellow-men, I am not calling you to make a great sacrifice, though some sacrifice is expected as a natural consequent, but I do call you to come and have a share in one of the greatest opportunities for fraternal service that the history of the world has ever presented. You are not limited to any particular phase of the work. If you are thinking simply of making...
