Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Janet didn't set out to be a cougar; it was actually quite accidental. Somehow though, she is always ending up with younger men. Of course looking fabulous does nothing to hurt the situation. Her skin is smooth and wrinkle free. She certainly doesn't wear her hair like a 43 year old woman. She has actually lost track of how many times she has heard the phrase: I thought you were younger. It seems to run in the family. Needless to say, the young man did call and it was decided that Janet would make dinner for them at her house. Janet didn't consider the possible dangers of inviting a virtual stranger into her home. In retrospect, that may not have been a wise decision but it worked out. Janet: As it turned out, Junior was quite well hung and quite skilled at love making for a young man. At first it was a little awkward. After all, I really didn't know him very well and it was clear that our relationship was going to be strictly of a sexual nature. It seemed that he wanted to know what some of my fantasies were? Um Junior, that may not be the wisest question to ask a freak. I'm just saying. Well Janet told the young man she had always wanted to be kissed from head to toe. That's the thing about the young ones, they are so obedient. He then proceeded to do just that. He started at her forehead and worked his way down her body ever so slowly. He paused only briefly at her lips to tease her with his tongue and then...
