

Unity of Command and Interdiction (Paperback)

By Daniel P Leaf

Biblioscholar, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Fox I leader at 18 thousand from Nickel 1. As the AIM-7 radar missile streaked at the unseen enemy, Nickel 1 cranked his F-15C into a hard turn down and to the left. Nickel 2 s clean Dammit, the leader muttered to himself, his radar work is better than that, that, Two should have a radar contact by now. The life-and-death game of chicken continued, closing from 18 nautical miles to inside 12. Startled by a tone in his headset, the flight lead glanced at the radar warning display to see that a MG-29 had locked him up with his on board radar. Nickel 1 was well inside the MiG s WEZ (weapons employment zone). And he s probably fired, he thought. A quick switch action dispensed chaff. Adding to his consternation, the F-15 pilot had lost sight of his wingman, and there was now a cloud deck between his jet and the adversary. Will his missile destroy the bandit? Has the adversary fired? He hates it when this happens. Suddenly, a blinding flash! The fighter pilot is jarred from his daydream...
