Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We don't get to choose who we fall in love with-and sometimes we fall too far. Daniel Eames is a bodyguard. Usually assigned to protecting politicians, he has fallen out of his boss's good books after getting too close to his last charge's son, but when rising Hollywood star and Academy Award nominee Bryan McTiernan receives peculiar letters and requires the best possible protection, Dan is put on the job. While he agrees that the letters are more than harmless fan mail, he finds it impossible to narrow down his suspicions and Bryan isn't helping by alternately seducing and irritating the hell out of him. Against his better judgement, Dan falls for Bryan's manipulations, but the more he gets to glimpse behind the facade of the young actor, the more he realises that something in Bryan's past has a strong hold over him. While both Dan and Bryan are aware of this, neither sees the full extent of his fixation. With the help of Gabe, a fellow bodyguard and friend, Dan pursues different theories and even hires a private investigator to learn about Bryan's well-hidden past. What he discovers has the potential to destroy more than just a promising career, and in the end, Bryan has to make a choice-allow for his past fixation to take him hostage again or run away and into Dan's open arms?.
