WAKING UP GILLIGAN (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A spiritual commune should be a place for work, pleasure and find-ing yourself, but thanks to an assassination attempt, embezzlement and one guy s ability to be in the worst place at the best time, things aren t ever that simple. It s the early 80s, and Swami Satyam Gilligan, a simple, young Canadian formerly named John Price Jr., is out to find himself through the teachings of the Divine Bhagwan on a small, self-built commune in the Pacific Northwest. Somehow, stalwart but excitable Gilligan manages to fumble into the darker side of the com-mune s business enterprises, causing the peaceful commune to slowly erupt into all-out war with a gang of rednecks. MacLean s debut features fast pacing and enjoyable dialogue that allows the action to fly along, with nearly pitch perfect plotting lead-ing up to a satisfying ending. KIRKUS INDIES Waking Up Gilligan is at once hilarious and evocative, sexy and sublime, silly and serious, epic and ephemeral-a hysterical parody of enlightenment that becomes itself enlightened. Richly poetic, wonderfully paced, persistent, intelligent, knowledgeable prose that remains somehow always attentive and accessible. An immensely playful novel. A working man s John Barth. A romantic s Tom Robbins. A journey to be savored and a story to be finished. Set in a well-researched and for me (a 58 year old Americanadian) nostalgic era, it has no expiry date. This book will be as interesting and relevant a hundred years from now as it is today and would ve been thirty years ago when the story takes place. I feel honored to have been asked to edit it. - Christopher K. Miller Hey J.R. ! I finished reading your book,...
