Excerpt from Annual Reports for Yellowstone National Park, 1917 Union Pacific Railroads, respectively, through the reservation to the various hotels; there were two large camping enterprises (Wylie and Shaw & Co. Powell companies), and one small poorly equipped camping concern engaged in the business of carrying passengers from the northern and western entrances and accommodating them in camps of a more or less permanent nature. There was an automobile concern, owned and operated by the two transportation companies and by the two large camp companies, none of which controlled the stock or the policies of the enterprise, which was engaged in the transportation of passengers has the terminus of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, at Cody, Wyoming, through the eastern gateway to the Lake Hotel, where connection was made with the horse-drawn stage lines on the loop or circle route through the park. There was one hotel system involving a very large investment which embraced five hotels and well-equipped lunch stations. Reviews

Totally one of the better publications I have actually read through. It really is really fascinating through studying time period. It's been printed in an extremely simple way and is particularly just following I finished reading through this ebook in which basically modified me, modify the way I think.

-- Mrs. Maudie Weimann

It is just one of the most popular ebooks. It usually fails to price an excessive amount of. You will not really feel monotony at any moment of your time (that's what catalogues are for about when you check with me).
