A very interesting case is recorded by Mr. Fergusson. 1 The following instance of tree-worship, he says, which I myself witnessed, is amusing, even if not instructive. While residing in Tessore, I observed at one time considerable crowds passing near the factory I then had charge of. As it might be merely an ordinary fair they were going to attend, I took no notice; 4 but as the crowd grew daily larger, and assumed a more religious character, I inquired, and was told that a god had appeared in a tree at a place about six miles off. Next morning I rode over, and found a large space cleared in a village I knew well, in the centre of which stood an old decayed date tree, hung with garlands and offerings. Around it houses were erected for the attendant Brahmins, and a great deal of business was going on in offerings and Puj and . On my inquiring how the god manifested his presence, I was informed that soon...
