Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Higher Education and Catholic Leadership in Canada No less than in the aristocratic old countries of Mid Victorian times the lack of higher education is a disability to Catholics in the democratic Canada of the twentieth century. The disability is, perhaps, even more serious now In Newman s time higher education was necessary for the gentleman and for the learned professions, law, medi cine, and the Church; but it was not considered necessary in trade and industry to any considerable extent. To-day industry has become so much a matter of applied science that it calls for the services of the most highly trained men. A modern nation depends at least as much upon the educa tion of its engineers and chemists as upon its lawyers anddoctors. Mind is the most important asset of a nation, and the culture of mind is its most important worldly busmess.
