Excerpt: .and its practical application has been the test of saving faith. To lead the churches in obedience thereto is today the most stubborn, heart-breaking task to which Christian men are called. For this work of world-wide missions is our task, the universal reign of Messiah our final aim, and his well done our coveted reward. Though the churches have moved with lagging steps, and tardy hands have toiled, yet the fields have been sown, and the first fruits gathered give pledge of a harvest so rich that earth and heaven shall yet over-flow with joy. The last report of our Foreign Mission Board begins with a Joyful note of praise and thanksgiving to God for the gratifying success attend, 54 ALABAMA BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION ing our labors on both the Home and Foreign fields. God has gone out before us, and the tokens of...
